

Orientation to Employability Skills

Employability skills: The ability to be employed is employability! It includes all the skills that can help a trainee succeed in any job.

Behavioral Skills: Success belongs to those who have the confidence and ability to learn new skills. One must learn how to get and develop new skills.

English Literacy: Reading and writing Basic English creates opportunities for jobs all over the world.

Communication: Communication skills increases ability to express your ideas and thoughts to anyone.

IT Literacy: IT Literacy module can create a better resume, find better jobs and learn new skills faster.